Start Me Up!

Understanding the Australian Start-up Ecosystem

Australia is home to world-famous start-ups such as Atlassian, Freelancer, CultureAmp, Canva, Prospa, Unlocked.

Australia's strong innovation culture has helped it become one of the world's fastest growing tech hubs, with Sydney now ranked in the top 20 start-up cities (Silicon Valley Global Start-up Ecosystem Report, 2017).

The Australian Embassy invites you to hear from the experts on what makes Australia a great place to innovate, collaborate and commercialise.
